

e-Bharari 2021

(ANNUAL PRIZE DISTRIBUTION FUNCTION)

Prize distribution is one of the most important functions of an Institute. It is a memorable event in the history of institution. The annual prize distribution program (Bharari) is a ceremony that the institute has been celebrating since 2009.

The tradition was not broken in this year also. Due to Covid-19 outbreak this year A. G. Patil Polytechnic Institute, Solapur organized the annual prize distribution ceremony (e-Bharari).

The lockdown prize Distribution ceremony was in fact extra special as physical event arranged in auditorium having limited audience but this year the students had a much wider audience. You tube recorded 4000+ viewers.

The function began with Ganesh Vandana performed by Ms. Sanjana Sulgadle (SYCE) student. It was followed by a short PowerPoint Presentation showing 10 years glorious journey of an institute. The principal Dr. M. A. Chougule read out the annual report about the progress, examination results and extra-curricular activities of the institute. While highlighting the achievements of the college, he said that the college had played an important role in improving the socio-economic situation of the society. A. G. Patil Polytechnic is a leading institution among the country. He also tells that we not only offers the best in academics but also encouraged an overall development of the student through various extracurricular activities conducted and taught by their talented and capable faculty members.

The students of all braches showcased their prowess in an amazing dance performance. Recipients of more than 150 prizes including academic, sports, co-curricular & extra-curricular were announced during the two-hour program. As the roll of honors was announced, the screen showed he certificates with photo of the students. Student anchors were reading out their achievements and the cultural program were interspersed in between the prize distribution. Vice Principal shri. J. M. Jaketia announced special awards like best employee award was given to Mr. T. L. Patil (HOD, Computer Dept.); best department award was given to Mechanical Department. The best outgoing student award of each department were also announced.

The parents also expressed their opinion regarding institute and faculty so this e-Bharari gave the opportunity to parents also.

In order to make this event successful, a lot of efforts were taken by students and teachers. The management is always supportive in such type of innovative events of course the thunderous claps and shouts were not there but the encouragement students got via comments & emoticons in the chat box has a great value.

The function ended with National Anthem.
